

Nexans colour series

Supplying a full range of electrical application solutions.

THE POWER OF COLOUR

Nexans colour series cables are made with the end-user in mind for instant identification and specific application. And better yet, Nexans advantage of local manufacturing means the products are made by Australians for Australians!

OLEX-BLU

Designed with the installer in mind. The distinct blue sheath is for ease of identification when installing.

ENVIROLEX®

PVC free cable specifically made to support green building sector where environment, health and fire safety are imperative. A low smoke zero halogen cable that maintains circuit integrity during a fire.

SWITCHTECH

Olex-Switchtech is a durable and robust 3C cable specifically designed for modern residential and commercial lighting switchgear which incorporate switch backlighting for increased visibility.

CURRENT

Our original flat TPS cable, quick and simple to install.

- Designed for air-conditioning units and 3-phase applications

- Low smoke emissions for increased visibility during evacuation
- Low flame propagation, ensuring minimal spread of fire
- Non-migratory in polystyrene

- Two-in-one cable designed specifically for light switches and other modern household electrical fixtures
- Safe core configuration

- Easy to strip
- Used for general power applications

